Room to Move, But You'd Better Move Fast

Combining balance proportions of indoor and outdoor living spaces for the ever-growing family. This is a home that was built with quality and flexible accommodation where teenage space and parental peace is assured. Located in the quiet pocket of Heany Park Estate, this well maintained family home will cater for your big family.

Entrance through double timber door to spacious lounge, study room with internal access from garage, powder room, formal dining with chandelier, great size kitchen with dishwasher, separate meals area with plenty of natural light and private living room at rear with sliding door access to an outdoor area. The great outdoor living features a fully enclosed pergola with Jacuzzi and fully concreted floor, landscaped garden, veggie patch and garden shed. Head upstairs to another living area, Master Bedroom with WIR, parents retreat area and private ensuite, three other bedrooms with BIR, main bathroom and separate toilet.
