Family Living with Quality and Charm

Recently renovated family home with panoramic views, combining the best of urban and country living. This family home is bursting with character, featuring brand new kitchen and bathrooms, spacious living areas and a charming outdoor entertainment area with sweeping views to the Dandenong ranges.

Enter this delightful home to be greeted by a formal lounge with large bay window. The spacious formal dining area is adjacent to the modern kitchen, which has been renovated to a high standard with SS appliances, induction cook top, glass splashback and dishwasher. The addition of an island bench is a thoughtful touch, perfect for serving breakfast or for use as a casual eating area. This home has been cleverly designed to provide access to the rumpus from lots of different points, making it an excellent gathering area for friends or visitors, while the location of the main living area at the rear gives excellent privacy.

The outside entertainment area is fully
