Your very own designer home

This MBA Home of the Year (1992 1993) combines style, sophistication and harmony through Feng Shui principles. A stylish split-level home, it is a triumph of glass, angles, curves and light. Quite simply stunning. Walking through the feature front doors to your designer home, you are greeted by light, glass and mirrors, which work together to create a unique modern, ambient atmosphere. The spacious, open formal lounge with soaring ceilings steps down into a refined dining area with huge feature wall showcasing this property's most distinctive focal feature, a unique two-way open fireplace.

A light, airy kitchen overlooking landscaped fernery is the perfect place to prepare gastronomic delights to wow your guests, to be enjoyed in the adjoining meals and family room, which opens onto the terrace, or in the formal dining area. The living area also comprises a rumpus/billiards room with a circular,
