YOUR WISH IS OUR COMMAND

With its cathedral ceiling, expansive living area and high-quality finish, this renovated family home is bound to impress. Privacy, security and space are the order of the day thanks to this home's location in a secluded court, with plenty of balance between inside and outside space.

The approach to the property is via an attractive landscaped front yard with sandstone tile steps rising to the front door. The cathedral ceiling dominates as you step down into the spacious lounge, equipped with built-in speakers and open to the generous formal dining room, offering plenty of room to cater for your growing family.

Choose whether to entertain your guests inside or in the impressive outdoor entertainment area, which is accessed directly from the dining room through sliding doors with retractable fly wire screens. Finished with warm sandstone paving, this delightful outdoor space includes a six-seater spa, ceiling heaters, built-in speakers, two bar fridges and
