Unique Design and Versatile Layout

Enjoy your creature comforts in this luxury four-bedroom house located in the exclusive Montpellier Gardens Estate. Situated in a quiet court, this contemporary home offers generous and well-designed living space which is intelligently balanced indoors and out, making it perfect both for relaxed family living and extravagant entertaining. The high-quality finish will make it the envy of your friends and family, while its location is second to none, with shops, schools, universities and travel links right on your doorstep. The main entrance leads to a formal lounge and dining room, bathed in an abundance of natural light. The generous kitchen really is the heart of the home and is equipped with prestigious European appliances, square-edge stone kitchen bench tops and glass splashback. The low-maintenance outdoor area is accessed directly from the meals area via a bi-folding door, and separately via
