Family fun in idyllic surroundings

A spacious family home located on a quiet residential street. With open-plan living and a fully renovated kitchen inside, and a large outdoor area with swimming, deck and children's playground, this four-bedroom home is the perfect place to bring up your growing family. Sweep into your driveway and into your double garage, past the generous front yard with additional car port. A side gate provides direct access to your private back yard, while the main entrance beckons you in with its welcoming timber floor. The open-plan lounge room and formal dining room are set off beautifully by the white timber venetian blinds, giving the home a light and contemporary feel.

This modern style continues into the newly renovated kitchen, where preparing meals for family and friends is a delight thanks to the attractive glass splash back, ample storage, Bosch appliances and soft-close drawers. This home benefits
