THE ART OF SURPRISE AT ITS VISUAL BEST:

SOLD

A spirited renovation gives this exciting home a fresh dimension of light and space.

A compelling combination of Art Deco style and architect-designed extension has transformed a 1930s classic into this substantial and spectacular contemporary domain created by Paul Gardener-design. This energy-efficient home is sure to surprise with its flexible and versatile floorplan, light-filled family spaces, and exceptional storage inside and out. With city skyline views and its brilliant north-orientation, this two-level interior overlooking private decking and gardens via double-glazed walls emphasises the true meaning of indoor/outdoor living. Includes lounge room with open fireplace, large dining area overlooking central courtyard opening to family living room, Beautifully appointed Smeg/Bosch-equipped kitchen, four bedrooms all with built in robes, two bathrooms, powder room, huge rumpus room or 5th bedroom, fitted study area, laundry, gas space heating, fans/natural ventilation, solar hot water, polished hardwood and concrete
